--MEXICO MISSION TRIP:
The Fall Volunteer In Mission trip to Mexico was a success. We made new friends at Divine Savior Methodist Church in Acayuca, Hidalgo, Mexico. There were 13 on the team from the US: Marti & Emily Brooks, Elba Dorris, Rachel Hurst, Pat Kinchloe, Nancy Petross from Carthage, Bob & Barbara Snell, Norm & Harletta Spencer, and Ron & Kay Wolford and their grandson Stephen. We had 3 Mexican interpreters, Methodists who have been with us for many years: Gibram, Marcos, and Martin.

The construction team worked on the second floor addition to the church. They mixed the stucco compound by hand, added stucco to the walls, and drilled grooves in the walls for the electrical conduit. They worked alongside the church members with a local maestro in charge.

The medical team held the clinic on Monday and Tuesday at a church member's home out in the country along a very rutted dirt road. On Monday a doctor, the daughter of church members, helped. On Wednesday through Friday morning the clinic was held at an unfinished house with a beautiful view of the valley surrounded by mountains. This house was also along another very rutted dirt road. But the people easily found the clinic.

A VIM team will be returning to Acayuca March 17-25, 2012. You are invited to join the team -- no skills necessary, except for doctors and nurses whom we need – and no Spanish required. Please talk with Elba, Rachel, and/or Bob or any of the former team members for more information or if you have questions.

The team thanks everyone for the prayers, financial support, toys, and encouragement. Barbara Snell

From Pastor Jerry's Desk

Dear Church Family,

Every fall we have the opportunity to celebrate what God has done, is doing and will do in the future. We find ourselves approaching the holiday season with grateful and expectant hearts knowing somehow that God will bless our present and future. As we live and focus on the magnitude of God's blessings we can find ourselves realizing we have "Enough" because we have "discovered joy through simplicity and generosity." God's blessings help us want to give of ourselves to honor God and touch the lives of those in need.

It is our firm commitment to seek out "the least, the last and the lost" in the name of Jesus Christ. For authentic ministry to occur in the coming year, I feel our individual and corporate commitments are crucial. I would ask that your family pray diligently about how you might offer your prayers, presence, gifts and service to God for the coming year.

We have been focusing on our daily stewardship calling through the sermon series "Enough". The sermon topics for "Enough" are the following: October 23rd: "Priorities", October 30th: "Living Extravagantly", November 6th: "The Secret of Contentment", November 13th Consecration Sunday: "Defined by Generosity".

You will receive a commitment letter the week of November 6th inviting you to invest your time, talent and resources in God's mission and ministry. The form can be mailed to Gallatin First United Methodist Church, 149 West Main Street Gallatin, Tennessee 37066. If you prefer to email your commitment information, you can email it to marybeth.williams@fumcgallatin.org

Thank you for your commitment to God and the ministries of the Gallatin First United Methodist Church. I look forward to an exciting 2012 as we seek to do God's will and walk in His ways.

Blessings, Jerry K. Wallace

Dear Church family, Thank you so much for helping us make our first annual Gallatin Community Trunk-or-Treat a huge success! Thousands were blessed because of you and we made hundreds of contacts who want information about our church through the event. God blessed the event so much, we don't even know how many were there. Most estimations are between 5,000-7,000. Well done Church!
